

A pair of hands, one light-skinned and one dark-skinned, are shown holding a small green seedling with soil. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue and green. The text is overlaid on the image.

THIS IS THE YEAR TO

MULTIPLY

AND INCREASE

WHAT GOD HAS PLACED INTO

your hands

BROWN GLOBAL MINISTRIES

INTRODUCTION

This book is a spiritual call to action.

God has placed unique talents, gifts, and abilities into each of our hands. The question is: what will we do with them?

Will we multiply and increase them for His glory, or will we let them lie dormant?

Through biblical examples, personal reflection, and practical application, this workbook will guide you on a journey to identify what God has entrusted to you and how to multiply it for the advancement of His Kingdom.

CHAPTER 1

Recognizing what's in your hands

Theme:

Self-awareness of God-given talents

Scripture:

Luke 19:11–13, Matthew 25:15

Key Points:

- Everything we have is a gift from God.
- The parable of the minas and talents reveals the importance of using what you have been given.

Self-reflection:

“Lord, what have You placed in my hands?”

CHAPTER 2

Guarding Against Comparison

Theme:

Avoiding the trap of envy.

Scripture:

Psalm 139:14

Key Points:

- We are fearfully and wonderfully made, each with a unique role in God's plan.
 - Comparing our gifts to others leads to discouragement and stagnation.
 - Gratitude unlocks the ability to see the beauty in our own talents.
-

CHAPTER 3

The Power of Multiplication

Theme:

Faithful stewardship leads to exponential growth.

Scripture:

Luke 19:16-17

Key Points:

- Faithfulness in small things positions you for larger responsibilities.
 - Multiplication is a divine principle: seed, time, and harvest.
-

CHAPTER 4

Trustworthiness in Small Things

Theme:

Excellence begins with what's in front of you.

Scripture:

Colossians 3:23-24

Key Points:

- God rewards excellence and diligence in the “small” areas.
 - Are you excellent in your personal life, work, relationships, and ministry?
 - Everything you do reflects your service to Christ.
-

CHAPTER 5

Breaking Free from Fear

Theme:

Overcoming excuses and fear of failure.

Scripture:

Luke 19:20-23

Key Points:

- Fear is the enemy of faith and multiplication.
 - The servant who hid his mina allowed fear to dictate his actions.
 - Faith in God's character empowers boldness.
-

CHAPTER 6

The Blessing of Obedience

Theme:

Multiplication is tied to obedience.

Scripture:

Matthew 25:21

Key Points:

- Obedience in using what God has given leads to exponential blessings.
 - The servant who multiplied his talents was rewarded with more.
 - God blesses those who honor Him with their gifts.
 - Fear is the enemy of faith and multiplication.
 - The servant who hid his mina allowed fear to dictate his actions.
 - Faith in God's character empowers boldness.
-

Action Steps:

Commit one specific talent to God's work
and start using it consistently.

What is that specific talent or gift?

Write it down!

CHAPTER 7

The Kingdom Mindset

Theme:

Your gifts are for the kingdom.

Scripture:

Matthew 6:33

Key Points:

- The ultimate goal of multiplying what's in your hands is to expand God's kingdom.
 - Your talents, whether big or small, are valuable to God's purpose.
 - Serving God with your gifts brings fulfillment and eternal rewards.
-

CHAPTER 8

This is the year for you to multiply and increase what God has put into your hands!

Theme:

Holistic multiplication.

Scripture:

John 10:10

Key Points:

- God wants you to multiply not just spiritually, but in every area of life: relationships, finances, work, and personal growth.
 - Biblical examples of multiplication (e.g., the feeding of the 5,000).
 - Walking in abundance is part of God's plan.
-

CONCLUSION

This Is the Year to Multiply

Theme:

Holistic multiplication.

Scripture:

Luke 19:26

Key Points:

- This is the year to multiply what God has placed in your hands.
- Procrastination and excuses rob you of your blessings.
- God honors faithfulness, diligence, and trust in His provision.

Final Charge:

Take what you have, no matter how small, and put it to work for God's glory.

Reflection Questions

1. What has God placed in your hands?
2. How can you multiply what He has given you this year?
3. What practical steps can you take today to begin this journey?

—————

This workbook serves as both a spiritual guide and a motivational tool to help believers step into their God-given purpose. It encourages active faith, stewardship, and an unwavering commitment to excellence in all things.

This is your year—let's multiply!